

Web sig report Trinity Term 2014

The Web SIG has now been running for a year, meeting roughly once a term. Membership and attendance at the meetings has risen steadily to over 40, and we have had a variety of very interesting talks including subjects such as Responsive Design, the Oxford Talks service, and the planning behind the new www.ox.ac.uk website.

Jim Leek

Department of Engineering Science